FAQ

Q. What is the age limit for EMDP2?

A. Applicants must be no older than 34 on July 1st in the year of matriculation to EMDP2. Waivers are considered.

Q. I do not have a Bachelor's Degree. Can I enrolled in EMDP2?

A. No. EMDP2 is not a degree completion program. You must have obtained a bachelor's degree from an accredited U.S. college or university to enroll in the EMDP2 program.

Q. I'm interested in becoming a nurse, dentist, or other health care professional. Will this program qualify me for those programs?

A. No, this program is designed to help enlisted Sailors become physicians (MD or DO).

Q. How much does this program cost Sailors?

A. All academic costs for EMDP2 (tuition, fees, textbooks, etc.) are paid for. You will continue to receive your military pay and allowances while enrolled in the program.

Q. Can nuclear-trained Sailors apply?

A. Sailors assigned to nuclear training command or who currently hold a nuclear NEC, must obtain a conditional release from their nuclear field before submitting an EMDP2 application.

Q. How does a nuclear-trained Sailor obtain a conditional release?

A. In order to obtain a conditional release to apply for EMDP2, a Sailor must submit a NAVPERS 1306/7 to the Nuclear Propulsion Program Manager (OPNAV N133) via the detailer at Enlisted Nuclear Power/Submarine assignments (PERS-403). The FY-24 board will only consider nuclear enlisted Sailors who have a conditional release included in their EMDP2 application.

Q. How are applications submitted?

A. Applications are to be submitted via DOD Safe to EMDP2-application@usuhs.edu. Sailors can verify receipt of their applications by phone at (301)319-0590 or e-mail EMDP2-application@usuhs.edu.
